

■ Photos cannot do them justice - Kiwi Steve Zahradny (left) and American Richard Smith show the crowd what jet cars are all about. (JH pic)

■ Every time Alchol Williams and Aussie competitor Jay Upton pulled the Top Fuel bikes out to run on Monday it rained! This burn-out preceded a shakedown pass on Sunday. Upton didn't make a pass. (JH pic)

■ Top Alcohol dragster gets pointed towards the VP marquees before Mark Vincent gets it back on track on Sunday. (JH pic)

■ Have shelter, will travel... SB Ford-powered dragster and driver Tony Marsh hide from the Monday afternoon's showers. Meet was cancelled not long after. (PW pic)

■ Mark Barsley got the quickest non-jet powered time for Monday, skidding through with a 7.49 at 193mph from the Camaro. (JD pic)

■ In the right place at the right time... Harley drag-bike rider Gary Beaumont had the privilege of being first down the track at the Sunday shakedown. (JH pic)

■ The only time Mike Hogan got to spin the tyres on his much modified Top Alcohol Coupe: running the car up in the pits. Several camp cars didn't get a run on either of the two days. (WB pic)
